

South Asia at Yale Brown Bag Series Fall 2016

Sept. 15: Luisa Cortesi (FES & Anthropology)

Amphibiousness: quagmire of mud, gender and knowledge of space in North Bihar, India

3:30 pm in Room 103, Luce Hall

Sept. 22: Anurag Sinha (Political Science)

The Vicissitudes of Imperial Sovereignty in Eighteenth-Century British India

Oct. 27: Kaneesha Cherelle Parsard (African American Studies and American Studies)

“And the House Will Always Look Clean”: Building the Family and the New British West Indian House in the 1940s

Nov. 3: Meredith McLaughlin (Anthropology)

Faithful Citizenship: Islam and Local Governance in a Rajasthani Qasba

Nov. 10: Nishchal Basnayat (YLS)

TBA

Dec. 1: Anthony Acciavatti (Agrarian Studies Program Fellow)

Ganges Water Machine: A Graphic Environmental History

sponsored by the
South Asian Studies
Council @ Yale and
the Graduate School
Dean's Fund

Thursdays at 4:30 pm
Room 203, Luce Hall
34 Hillhouse Ave.

photo:
Bhoomika Joshi