

South Asia Brown Bag Series Spring 2020

SPRING 2020 SCHEDULE

February 4th

Tracing the banyan tree: Rethinking organisational ties in the many-footed Hindu right

FELIX PAL

Fox International Fellow, Yale University

February 25th

Recalcitrant Lifeworlds of a Tree

APARAJITA MAJUMDAR

History, Cornell University

March 3rd

The Intermediate Capacity Trap: Explaining Inertia in India's Bureaucracy

AMY BASU

Political Science, Yale University

March 24th

"Self-made": Masculinity and Intergenerational Patriarchy in a Himalayan Town

BHOOMIKA JOSHI

Anthropology, Yale University

March 31st

The Political Economy of Casual Labour: Work, Famine, and Public Works in the North-Western Provinces of Colonial India 1860-1920

AMAL SHAHID

International History,
Graduate Institute, Geneva

April 14th

Analysing Legislator Behavior: Survey Evidence from Pakistan

FAHD HUMAYUN

Political Science, Yale University

April 21st

Indian Migrants on the U.S. Borderlands: Invasion, Influx, and Restriction in the Early Twentieth Century

HARDEEP DHILLON

History, Harvard University

Tuesdays

12 noon to 1:15 pm

Room 203

Henry R. Luce Hall

34 Hillhouse Avenue