

South Asia Colloquium Spring 2020

4:30pm • Thursdays • Room 202, Luce Hall, 34 Hillhouse Avenue

23 JAN

Neelam Khoja, InterAsia Initiative Fellow, SASC, Yale University

Archiving the Other: How the British Produced Afghan History, Culture, and Identity in India

30 JAN

Priya Joshi, English Department, Temple University

A Book History of the Novel

13 FEB

Jyotsna Singh, Department of English, Michigan State University

Shakespeare and Postcolonial Theory, Jyotsna Singh

18 FEB

Naeem Mohaiemen, Film Director

A Missing Can of Film

20 FEB

Chanchal Dadlani, Art History, Wake Forest University

Translating India: Art, Epistemology, and Mughal-French Exchange in the Late Eighteenth Century

27 FEB

Supriya Gandhi, Divinity School, Yale University

Book panel, The Emperor Who Never Was: Dara Shikoh in Mughal India

5 MAR

Andrew Ollett, South Asian Languages and Civilizations, The University of Chicago

The Context Principle in Indian Philosophy of Language

26 MAR

Meena Khandelwal, Department of Anthropology, The University of Iowa

The Gender of India's Fuelwood: Ethnographic Notes on Headloads and Truckloads

2 APR

Yamini Aiyar, Center for Policy Research

The Post Office Paradox: Unpacking The Dynamics Of Indias Welfare State, From The Bottom Up

16 APR

Samia Khatun, SOAS, University of London

Book panel, Australianama: The South Asian Odyssey in Australia

23 APR

Adeem Suhail, SASC, Yale University

Between Takhik and Takhikāt: Desires and liminality in a Pakistani gangland

For information, contact amaar.al-hayder@yale.edu or 203-432-9345

Sponsored by the South Asian Studies Council and generously supported by the MacMillan Center.

Yale MACMILLAN CENTER

South Asian Studies Council

southasia.macmillan.yale.edu